

Extension of application period for the 2018-2019 applications for undergraduate programs

The University of Rwanda informs applicants who were unable to complete their applications for undergraduate admissions by 18th June 2018, that the system has been reopened to receive their applications from 25th-29th June 2018.

Applicants who have difficulties in completing their applications are advised to contact University campus resource centres for support. The application system will close at 29th June Midnight. Payment for application fees must be made not later than 28th June 2018 to avoid being caught up by the deadline.

Done at Kigali, 25th June, 2018

Professor Nelson Ijumba
Deputy Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs and Research

